

You're Invited

100 Years of Women PeaceMakers

Wednesday, March 11, 2015

5:00 - 7:30 PM

Celebrating

100 Years of The Women's International League for Peace and Freedom

Featuring

The Raging Grannies

A performance piece based on the lives of women affected by WWI

Introductions by WILPF US President, Mary Hanson Harrison, and

Catia Confortini, author of Intelligent Compassion: Feminist Methodology in WILPF

An address by Secretary-General Madeleine Rees:

"A World in Crisis: How Women are Challenging Traditional Peacemaking"

Click here for more information

*New York Public Library
Stephen A. Schwarzman Building
42nd Street and 5th Ave. (South Court Auditorium)
New York City
Free and open to the Public*

co-sponsored by

New York Public Library