

Stop weapons to South Sudan

Join us and call on President Obama's advisors to lead on imposing an arms embargo on South Sudan.

TWEET THE NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL

WATCH THE VIDEO

In Pictures

32 months of war crimes and systematic attacks on civilians.

12 months after peace agreement, abuses continue in South Sudan.

ARMS EMBARGO IS LONG OVERDUE.

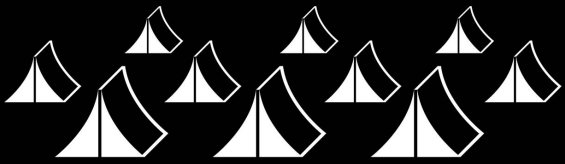

NO ONE IS COUNTING THE DEAD IN SOUTH SUDAN

KIDS CARRYING GUNS INSTEAD OF BOOKS
16,000 children were recruited by armed forces and groups in South Sudan since December 2013.

Source: UNICEF, November 2015

More than 2.4 million South Sudanese have been forced to flee their homes since December 2013.

Source: OCHA, April 2016

Over half of South Sudan's population is in need of humanitarian assistance.

Source: OCHA, April 2016

RAPE AS A WEAPON OF WAR
Fighters raped girls as young as five in South Sudan.

Source: OHCHR, March 2016

SOUTH SUDAN: BOTH PARTIES REARMED, COMMIT NEW ABUSES

Source: UN Panel of Experts, January 2016

PLACES OF REFUGE UNDER ATTACK IN SOUTH SUDAN
UN Compounds, Hospitals, Churches, Mosques

#HaltArms

Further Reading

- >> Joint Letter to UN Security Council Members on South Sudan
- >> Time to Get Serious With South Sudan
- >> Enough is enough. It's time for an arms embargo in South Sudan
- >> UN: Act on South Sudan Investigations
- >> UN Human Rights Council: Enhanced Interactive Dialogue on South Sudan
- >> Dispatches: Giving Justice the Slip in South Sudan
- >> South Sudan: Civilians Killed, Tortured in Western Region