This is the homepage for the Council on Foreign Relation’s page on women, peace and security. It encapsulates infographics, research papers, key facts and figures, quotes and a link to further research on the subject.

Please find the page here.

Only two women in history—
Miriam Coronel Ferrer of the Philippines and Tzipi Livni of Israel—have ever served as chief negotiators, and only one woman—Coronel Ferrer—has ever signed a final peace accord as chief negotiator.