

The Permanent Mission of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago

Invites you to a High-level panel discussion on

“Women, Disarmament, Non-Proliferation and Arms Control”

Tuesday 25th September, 2012

4:00p.m. to 6:00p.m.

ECOSOC Chamber, United Nations Headquarters

Moderated by Ms. Agnes Marcaillou, Director, United Nations Mine Action Service

Distinguished Members of the Panel:

The Honourable Winston Dookeran, Minister of Foreign Affairs of Trinidad and Tobago

The Honourable Bob Carr, Minister of Foreign Affairs, Australia

Senator, the Honourable Arnold Nicholson, Minister of Foreign Affairs and Foreign Trade, Jamaica

The Honourable Mr. Espen Barth Eide, Minister of Foreign Affairs, Norway

Her Excellency Tarja Halonen, Former President, Finland

Ms. Angela Kane, High Representative, United Nations Office for Disarmament Affairs

Ms. Anna MacDonald, Head of Arms Control, OXFAM International

Featuring the Launch of UNLIREC Publication

“Forces of Change: Profiles of Latin American and Caribbean Women Combating Illicit Trafficking in Small Arms”

Heads of Delegations, other high-level officials and representatives of delegations of Permanent and Observer Missions, as well as the NGO Community and other interested individuals are invited to participate in this most important activity, which discusses the role of women in promoting international peace and security, disarmament, non-proliferation and arms control.

For further information, please contact: Ms. Charlene Roopnarine at croopnarine@tinrbago.org or 212 697-7620 x 303 or Ms. Pulmattee Ramkissoon at pulmattee@trinbago.org at (212) 697-7620 x 306