Chief of the General Staff, Commander-in-Chief of Ukraine's Armed Forces Viktor Muzhenko and NATO's Special Representative for Women, Peace and Security Marriet Schuurman held a meeting to discuss the cooperation with NATO on the issues of ensuring gender equality.

The meeting was held in the scope of Muzhenko's working visit to the NATO headquarters, Ukrinform's correspondent in Brussels reports.

"The sides agreed on the further cooperation between Ukraine and NATO on gender issues, namely the readiness of the Alliance to provide Ukraine with full support to ensure the holding of reform of Ukraine's Armed Forces", Ukraine's Mission at NATO reports.

The sides also discussed the issue of practical assistance for ensuring gender equality of the Ukrainian armed forces personnel.
