

Geneva, 21 July 2010

The European Union Joint Team in Geneva is pleased to announce the organization of:

High-level Consultation on Women, Peace and Security: from Resolution to Action

The Protection Agenda under Security Council Resolution 1325/2000

The event will take place at the Palais des Nations in Geneva (Room XII), on Wednesday, 15 September 2010 and Thursday, 16 September 2010.

The event is organized in partnership with relevant UN Agencies and NGOs and is coordinated by the United Nations Population Fund and the United Nations Refugees Agency, with the support of the United Nations Institute for Training and Research and the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom. The working language of the event is English, and simultaneous interpretation into French will be provided.

The event will be preceded by High-level Consultations, hosted by the Mission of Belgium in collaboration with the Geneva Centre for the Control of Armed Forces (DCAF) and the United Nations Office in Geneva.

The event's concept note and the provisional programme are enclosed. A repository of literature and good practice is being compiled on Peacewomen (www.peacewomen.org/pages/1325--10/1325--10-literature-repository) to enrich understanding, share experience and lessons learned on the implementation of Resolution 1325/2000.

Registration could be completed directly on-line, at the following link: www.unitar.org/event/by/ptp. Alternatively, it is possible to fill in the enclosed form and send it by e-mail to Ms. Claudia Croci (UNITAR Peacekeeping Training Programme) at claudia.croci@unitar.org or by fax at +41 22 917 8993. The deadline for registration is Friday, 3 September 2010.

The European Union Joint Team in Geneva avails itself of this opportunity to renew the assurances of its highest consideration.
