A. IDENTIFICATION OF THE INITIATIVE

[1] TITLE	[4] THEMATIC AREAS
Training national and regional officials in the Early Warning System of the National Ombudsman's Office and mainstreaming gender indicators for a "Gender and Conflict Monitoring Model".	Please see instructions for definitions and select one (or more if needed) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> PREVENTION <input type="checkbox"/> PARTICIPATION <input type="checkbox"/> PROTECTION <input type="checkbox"/> RELIEF & RECOVERY <input type="checkbox"/> NORMATIVE
[2] BRIEF DESCRIPTION Please provide a description of your main activities
To date, in spite of the increasingly significant women's initiatives in researching and reporting on the impact of the armed conflict on women, gender has rarely been effectively mainstreamed in national policymaking processes on peace and security. Furthermore, due to the lack of accurate and timely information on the impact of the conflict on women, UNIFEM considers the information and monitoring systems fundamental in the design of prevention and protection strategies that are oriented toward women's rights. In the context of a Memorandum of Understanding signed by the P&S Programme of UNIFEM in Colombia and the EWS at the National Ombudsman's Office, the objective of the Initiative is to mainstream gender indicators, developed with support from UNIFEM in an earlier phase of the project, and train EWS Officials in order to strengthen and engender conflict prevention programmes. The intention is to highlight the differentiated and specific impacts of the conflict on women's lives and security. A UNIFEM Expert Consultant will be in charge of the training.

B. INITIATIVE RESULTS STATEMENTS AND INDICATORS

[5] EXPECTED OUTPUT / EXPECTED ACCOMPLISHMENTS
Relevant government institutions apply a gender perspective in strategies of prevention at the national level.
[6] How is your output contributing to the thematic area/s you selected (prevention, participation, protection, relief & recovery, normative)?
By training officials of the EWS on gender issues and methodologies related to conflict prevention, a comprehensive Gender and Conflict Monitoring Model will be developed. The Model will include the full process of identification of the different stages of conflict, situational and stakeholders analyses, and the formulation of preventive actions for women to be reflected in early and effective prevention measures. Accordingly, indicators will become a fundamental intermediate element of this model. The information they provide for dynamic analyses of the situation should lead to the elaboration of conflict scenarios that take into account particular gender-sensitive issues like GBV and therefore contribute to the design and implementation of efficient preventive measures from a gender perspective.
[7] INDICATOR OF OUTPUT / EXPECTED ACHIEVEMENT
	Source	Baseline
Number of gender indicators included in the EWS/conflict monitoring of Ombudsman's Office.	EWS Reports	0
Number of risk reports that include gender indicators	EWS Risk Reports	0

[1] TITLE	[4] THEMATIC AREAS
Raising awareness of Violence Against Women in the context of armed conflict.	Please see instructions for definitions and select one (or more if needed) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> PREVENTION <input type="checkbox"/> PARTICIPATION <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> PROTECTION <input type="checkbox"/> RELIEF & RECOVERY <input type="checkbox"/> NORMATIVE
[2] BRIEF DESCRIPTION Please provide a description of your main activities
Women suffer during armed conflict, and in different and distinct ways than men. By its nature, war brings an increase in weapons and aggression into communities, raising levels of violence already perpetrated against women and girls. During conflict, women and girls are subject to extreme forms of violence against them, which are often used as a tool of war. They survive rape and sexual violence, torture and forced pregnancies, as well as displacement. Armed groups and militaries capture and enslave women and girls, forcing them to be sex slaves and to take up arms, to cook and carry supplies. Women and girls are also traded for forced labour and prostitution. Systemic sexual violence against women severely heightens women's and girls' vulnerability to HIV/AIDS and Sexually Transmitted Infections (STIs). However, despite the range and depth of atrocities committed against women, reporting on countries in conflict often lacks specific and comprehensive information on VAW and girls and its differential impact. That is why in Colombia, the UNIFEM Peace and Security Programme has supported women's organizations in the documentation and analysis of the specific impact of the conflict on women. That is the purpose of the working group "Women and Armed Conflict."
[3] MAIN PARTNERS Please list the main partners of this initiative
25 women's organizations in Colombia that take part in the working group "Women and Armed Conflict."

B. INITIATIVE RESULTS STATEMENTS AND INDICATORS

 The specific and differential impact of the armed conflict on women's lives and security in Colombia is documented in order to enhance and strengthen mechanisms of protection.

 By providing general information, documentation of cases, identification of categories of differential impact, specific needs, and indicators of Violence Against Women in the context of conflict, Colombian women's organizations' strategies for advocacy for better mechanisms of protection for women in conflict on the international and national levels are strengthened.

[7] INDICATOR OF OUTPUT / EXPECTED ACHIEVEMENT	Source	Baseline

It aims to do so by defending and promoting indigenous rights to natural resources and strengthening specific forms of participation, such as that of indigenous women, as well as fortifying the cultural and educational training designed to maintain cultural identities of resistance to conflict. There are many complex effects of the conflict suffered specifically by indigenous women and girls, such as familial disintegration, forced displacement, Violence Against Women, widowhood, physical insecurity, severe health, food and nutritional conditions, absence of educational opportunities, and more. All of these problems make relevant and necessary the support of this initiative, which intends to strengthen the participation of indigenous women in order to develop strategies to overcome this situation in their communities through the promotion of their cultural, economic and social rights. Indigenous women have taken an active role in the design of this initiative.

ANNEX I. DETAILED INSTRUCTIONS

The template consists of three sections:

- Section A: Identification of the initiative
- Section B: Initiative results statements and indicators
- Section C: About the initiative

Completion of all three sections of this template follows the results chain from a higher goal in the thematic areas for the implementation of SCR 1325 through outputs to strategies/activities.

Section A. Identification of the initiative

This section requests information on the actions to be taken or to be performed through which UN entity is intended to produce specific outputs. In the boxes in this section, entities are requested to provide: 1) a brief title of the initiative; 2) a short narrative description; 3) information on main partners; and 4) indicate which of the five thematic area/or areas the initiative aims at: Prevention; Participation; Protection; Relief and Recovery; or Normative. Broad definition of the thematic areas together with examples are provided below to facilitate identification of thematic areas. We encourage marking more than one area only when considered strictly necessary. If the initiative is a joint effort by several entities or a coordinating mechanism, please provide the full name (s) of the coordination mechanism and entities involved.

- Initiatives that seek to raise awareness of the provisions of SCR 1325

Section B. Initiative results statements and indicators

In this section entities are requested to place their reported initiative (s) in a Results Based Management (RBM) framework and provide information on:

- Output/expected accomplishments: This refers to the products and services which results from the completion of planned activities within a specific initiative
- Indicator of output/expected achievement: Please provide indicators for the reported initiatives. You can list both qualitative and quantitative indicators that will allow the verification of changes produced by the initiative relative to what has been planned. Make sure that output indicators measure the output statements. Please refer to Annex 2 for the list of suggested indicators.
- Source. Please provide information about the data sources for your selected indicator
- Baseline: Please provide baseline data against which progress can be measured. The baseline might be defined on the basis of the results achieved by each entity through implementation of 2006-2007 action plan.

Section C. About the initiative.

This section requests more specific information on the initiative.

- Where? Indicate where the initiative will be implemented – HQ, global, region, country. Please specify name of region (s) or country (ies). [NOTE: If the same initiative will be implemented in several countries or regions, please use one template for the initiative but list all the relevant locations]
- When? Indicate the time-frame of the initiative. Please be as specific as possible, e.g. instead of reporting “ongoing,” provide information of start and end dates and/or frequency.

- How? Each initiative should be categorized according to five broad categories: policy development; advocacy; capacity building; partnerships/networking and provision of goods and services. For analytical purposes the category ‘capacity building’ has been divided into three sub-categories: ‘training’, ‘guidelines’ and ‘other capacity building’. The box below explains these categories.

POLICY DEVELOPMENT

The development of policy directives or codes of conduct, including for project design, reporting, monitoring and evaluation. This would also involve policies for all levels and categories of staff outlining roles and responsibilities as well as more general external policies to guide efforts by external partners or other actors.

Examples:

- Development of departmental policy frameworks on gender mainstreaming in the area of peace and security
- Development of a departmental action plan for integrating a gender perspective into its work

ADVOCACY

Raising awareness, including through education, media and outreach (including websites) and information campaigns about SCR 1325 in general or about particular issues dealt with in the resolution. This would also involve promoting issues, approaches or strategies for the implementation of SCR 1325 in internal or external fora – including through statements, in official meetings and public events.

Examples:

- Promotion of the inclusion of a gender perspective in entity reporting through meeting interventions
- Development of gender sensitive public information materials

CAPACITY-BUILDING

This includes training; the design and implementation of guidelines; and other initiatives which build human and/or institutional capacity for implementation of SCR 1325. Capacity-building initiatives can be both internal to the UN and external such as the building of capacity of national or local government institutions or personnel or that of civil society to implement the resolution.

Examples:

- Provision of systematic gender training to all levels and categories of UN staff
- Appointment of and support to gender advisors/ technical experts in the UN system at HQ and field levels
- Provision of training and technical support to regional and national actors to ensure that women’s rights and gender perspectives are fully incorporated in legal reform, security sector reform
- Provision of technical and financial support to women’s group, networks and peace initiatives at the national level.

PARTNERSHIP AND NETWORKING

This includes initiatives whose focus is to develop and strengthen partnerships or networks for the implementation of SCR 1325. These can be both internal and external to the UN.

Examples:

- Strengthening of partnerships with civil society actors to implement projects on women, peace and security
- Development or support of partnerships and networks at all levels of government for implementation efforts
- Develop/strengthen inter-agency collaboration and coordination among UN entities in specific areas of 1325 work

PROVISION OF GOODS AND SERVICES

This will include initiatives that will ensure equal access to and use of goods and services.

Examples:

- Access to productive resources and capital
- Provision of food, shelter, fuel, medical supplies
- Access to and provision of legal or medical services

- Estimated resources (US$). To allow for an improved analysis of actual resources available for implementation of SCR 1325, entities are requested to provide information on resources available for implementation of their initiatives. Entities are requested to indicate: a) spending period, b) total budget for the initiative and c) amount earmarked for women (if specific information is available). If the initiative is being implemented in more than one location, please provide information on resource allocation by location, if information is available.
